

DECLARATION OF ERIK STRINDBERG

I, Erik Strindberg, declare as follows:

1. I was appointed by the Court as a Special Master on April 12, 2017 in a case involving the Secretary of Labor v. Paragon Contractors Corp. and Brian Jessop.
2. Pursuant to the Order Appointing Special Master (Doc. 137), Defendants were ordered to comply with specific reporting requirements to me regarding the location of every work site where they perform work in any capacity. Specifically, Defendants, including any successors in interest of Paragon, “at least three days before beginning work on any project, and immediately for projects on which they already are working,” are required to provide notification to me regarding the location of the work sites and the identity and dates of birth of all of the workers on the job sites. Mr. Jessop is required to disclose through email to me, at least five days before commencing work, the location of every job site where he is working in any capacity. Further, Mr. Jessop is required to provide to me within 10 days of changing employment, an affidavit stating the name of his employer, a description of his job duties and the name of his supervisor, as well as provide additional information from a principal of his employer. See Doc. 137.
3. Since the entry of the Court’s Order on April 12, 2017, I have received two emails from Mr. Jessop. The first is dated May 2, 2017, and is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The second is dated June 29, 2017, and is attached hereto as Exhibit B. These emails encompass the extent of any communication I have had with Defendants.
4. To date I have not conducted any unannounced inspections of the Defendants given Mr. Jessop’s representation in his May 2 email that he is not working on any jobsites and does not have any workers or employees.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Executed this 13th day of September 2017.

Eric,

At this time Paragon/Brian Jessop have no jobsites in which we are performing any work or have any workers or employees. We have no upcoming contracts or jobsites that we will be working on.

I do not have ownership in any other business

Also at this time I am pursuing another job which looks like it will open up. In accordance with the order I will let you know when I take on that job.

Thank you,
Brian Jessop
